ORDER

During the hearing today, both parties agreed to maintain a Status Quo Ante Order to avoid the filing of multiple pleadings and show cause order based on the following agreements:

- 1) The advertisement of the Reyes Barbecue will be limited only to its products and each party will not claim exclusive ownership of Reyes Barbecue. The advertisement shall include publication on website placement, leaflets, internet website and all means of communication available in the market.
- 2.) Both parties agreed to continue with the acceptance of the franchise application from prospective franchisees subject to the negotiation of the parties during the progress of the hearing.
- 3.) Violation of the Status quo Order shall cause the party at fault to pay a fine of One Thousand Pesos (P1,000.00) per publication per week to be deposited to the Office of the Clerk of Court of the Regional Trial Court of Quezon City.

SO ORDERED.

Given in open Court, this 10th day of September, 2008 at Quezon City, Philippines.
